

OLLIE'S BRANCH

Ollie Hinkle Heart Foundation | Ollie's Branch Privacy Policy

This privacy policy applies to clients of the Ollie Hinkle Heart Foundation (“OHHF”). Our client’s privacy is very important to us. Accordingly, we have developed this policy for our clients to understand how we collect, use, communicate, disclose, and make use of personal information. Before or at the time of collecting personal information, we will identify the purposes for which information is being collected.

We will collect and use personal information with the sole objective of fulfilling those purposes, and for other compatible purposes, unless we obtain the consent of the individual concerned or as required by law. We will protect personal information by reasonable security safeguards, including protection against unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification. Other compatible purposes to collect or use personal information includes non-identifying data analysis and OHHF internal analysis for program enhancements, improvements, and program funding.

We are not responsible for the conduct of any providers our OHHF clients choose to work with. When our clients engage with a provider participating in the OHHF program, this policy does not apply to the provider’s services. Each provider is responsible for articulation of their privacy policy with each of their patients. Our clients agree OHHF is not responsible for and does not have control over any provider’s access to personal information stored by OHHF. If OHHF clients allow third-parties access to their personal information, they do so at their own risk.

OHHF will disclose personally identifiable information as required by law, whenever OHHF believes disclosure is necessary to protect OHHF rights, or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or other legal process.

OHHF considers this a living document and will modify or update this policy and related policies from time to time. The most current version of the policies is available on OHHF’s website. An OHHF client’s continued participation in an OHHF program after any policy modification will constitute the OHHF client’s acceptance of the modification.

OHHF is committed to conducting business in accordance with this policy in order to ensure the confidentiality of personal information is protected and maintained. Information about OHHF policies and practices relating to the management of personal information is available upon request. If OHHF clients have questions or concerns regarding this privacy policy, or wish to contact OHHF for any reason, they can contact OHHF at outreach@theohhf.org.
